SUMMARY OF NEW CONCLUSIONS OF THE DISSERTATION

Title: A study on professional ethics education for students at pedagogical colleges in the context of education reform

Speciality: Theory and history of education

Classification: 62.14.01.02

Name of PhD Student: Bùi Thị Tuyết Mai

Supervisor: Phan Thanh Long, Assoc. Prof

Institutional: Hanoi National University of Education

NEW CONCLUSIONS OF THE DISSERTATION

1. In terms of theory :

- The dissertation determines the theoretical framework of professional ethics education for pedagogical students in the context of educational reform . Conception, professional ethics educating process, tasks, contents, methods of professional ethics education.
- The dissertation makes a contribution to confirm the value of professional ethics education as well as teaching profession in the context of education reform.
- The dissertation varies materials of professional ethics education at colleges.

2. In terms of practice

- The dissertation points out some of the issues on professional ethics education for students at colleges of education, and identifies the causes.
- The dissertation indicates some solutions to professional ethics education at colleges of education.
- The results of the dissertation are likely to be applied in the design of standard criteria of evaluation for professional ethics education at pedagogical colleges. In particular, the dissertation also provides resources for pedagogical colleges to organize professional ethics education for their students better. The contents of the dissertation can be used as materials in performing teaching and learning activities with a view to enhancing professional ethics education for students.
- The dissertation contributes to evaluating the status of professional ethics for pedagogical students nowadays. Based on the theoretical and practical basis, the dissertation suggests some measures for professional ethics education for pedagogical students in the context of education reform.

Supervisor PhD Student

Phan Thanh Long, Assoc. Prof Bùi Thị Tuyết Mai